do it

... as a group

It's easy for you to be swept away with the multitude of winter activities that you can do. You can tempt yourself and your friends to try as many – or just one – great outdoor winter activity.

Do it during the week with a group of 35 or more, this is a fabulous way to celebrate winter! Any group, family celebration or school can do it here!

...at a birthday party

In the Bear Pit! Get a group of your friends and play and stay! Do it on a sleigh ride on a crisp winter night. You are limited only by that wonderful sense of adventure and imagination.

...with a certified instructor

They can teach you the ins and outs of snowboarding and skiing. After your lesson you will be ready to do it on the hill, on a trail or in the Bear Pit! Do it privately or as a group.

...in a tube!

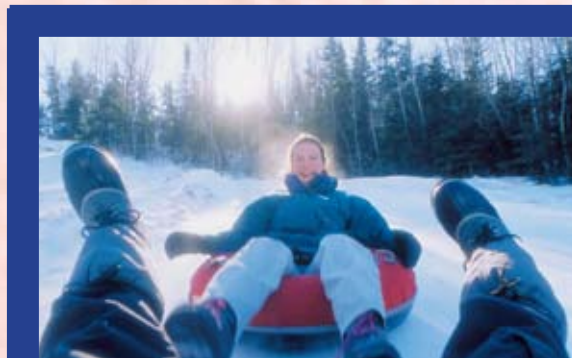

Your laughter will echo as you race down the tube run in the comfort of a custom inner tube. Just clip your tube on the tube lift and you can do it again, and again and again!

...at the cafe in winter

By the chalet fire while swapping adventures with your pals, sipping on hot chocolate, or enjoying a licensed beverage and a delicious, warm, homemade meal.

... in the snow!

You will feel the warmth of the winter sun on your back as you glide through 15 kilometres of groomed trails for classical and skate skiing.

Ski hill is open on weekends and holidays. If you have a group you can book mid-week.

Come out and enjoy 11 runs with t-bar, 2 rope tows, a handle tow for beginners, a tubing lift and a snowboard terrain park.
